- (C) In making this order the Court shall give due consideration to any treatment being given the child by prayer through spiritual means alone or through other methods approved by Tribal customs, traditions or religions, if the child or his parent, guardian or custodian are adherents of a bona fide religious denomination that relies exclusively on this form of treatment in lieu of medical treatment, or practices in fact the Tribal customs, traditions or religion upon which they rely for such treatment of the child.

- (E) Oral authorization by the Court is sufficient for care or treatment to be given and shall be accepted by any physician or hospital. No physician or hospital nor any nurse, technician or other person under the direction of such physician or hospital shall be subject to any criminal or civil liability in the Court for performance of care or treatment in reliance on the Court's authorization, and any function performed thereunder shall be regarded as if it were performed with the child's and the parent's authorization.

SUBCHAPTER F TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

Section 400 Purpose (5 PYTC § 7-400)

The purpose of this subchapter is to provide for the voluntary and involuntary termination of the parent/child relationship and for the substitution of parental care and supervision by the judicial process. This subchapter shall be construed in a manner consistent with the philosophy that all parties shall be secured their rights as enumerated in the Indian Civil rights Act of 1968 and that the family unit is of most value to the community and the individual family members, when that unit remains united together. Termination of the parent/child relationship is of such vital importance that it should be used only as a last resort when, in the opinion of the Court, all efforts have failed to avoid termination and it is in the best interests of the child to terminate the parent child relationship.

Section 410 Involuntary Termination (5 PYTC § 7-410)

- (A) Grounds for Involuntary Termination.
 - (1) That the parent has abandoned the child.
 - (2) That the parent has willfully inflicted repeated physical abuse upon the child resulting in serious physical injuries to the child.
 - (3) Willful and repeated acts of sexual abuse or sexual exploitation.
 - (4) The return of the child may result in serious permanent emotional damage as supported by the best evidence available in the field of child development.
 - (5) The parent is unable to discharge parental responsibilities because of mental illness, mental deficiency, or a history of chronic abuse of dangerous drugs, controlled substances or alcohol and there are reasonable grounds to believe that the condition will continued for a prolonged period indeterminate period.
 - (6) The child has been under the care and custody of the Social Services Department for fifteen (15) of the most recent twenty-two (22) months and the parent has been unable to remedy the circumstances that caused the child to be under the care and custody of the Social Services Department and there is a substantial likelihood that the parent will not be capable of exercising proper care and control in the near future.
 - (7) The parent has been convicted of any of the following offenses: the murder of another child of the parent; the manslaughter of another child of the parent; the aiding or abetting, attempting, conspiring or soliciting to commit the murder or manslaughter of another child of the parent; or a felony assault that results in serious bodily injury to the child or another child of the parent.
 - (8) If the Tribal Court has determined a child to be an abandoned infant.
- (B) Pre-Filing Requirements.

A petition seeking involuntary termination of the parent-child relationship must establish the following:

- (1) A ground for the involuntary termination of parental rights as provided by sub-section (A) of this section.
- (2) Continuation of the parent/child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects of successful placement into a permanent and stable home.
- (3) Not returning the child to their parent is the least detrimental alternative that can be taken.
- (4) Termination of the parental rights are in the child's best interest.

Section 420 Voluntary Termination of Parental Rights (5 PYTC § 7-420)

Parental rights may be relinquished voluntarily by a parent in writing, if signed by the parent in the presence of the Court and with approval of the Court. Relinquishment shall not be accepted or acknowledged by the Court prior to ten days after the birth of the child. The Court shall ensure that the parent understands the consequences of the voluntary termination prior to approving it. A parent who wishes to relinquish his/her parental rights shall be provided an interpreter if she/he does not understand English.

Section 430 Effect of Termination of Parental Rights (5 PYTC §7-430)

- (A) Upon the termination of parental rights, all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties and obligations including rights to custody, to control visitation or support existing between the child and parent shall be severed and terminated unless otherwise directed by the Court. The parent shall have no standing to appear at any future legal proceeding concerning the child. Any support obligations existing prior to the effective date of the order terminating parental rights shall not be severed or terminated. The rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent. A termination order shall not prevent a child from inheriting property or interest in the same manner as any other natural child from the natural parent. A natural parent may not, however, inherit from a natural child after termination.
- (B) An order terminating the parent/child relationship does not disentitle a child to any benefit due the child from any third person, agencies, state or the United States, nor shall any action under this chapter be deemed to affect any rights or benefits that the child derives from the child's descent from a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

SUBCHAPTER G ADOPTIONS

Section 440 Open Adoptions (5 PYTC § 7-440)

Adoptions under this subchapter shall be in the nature of "open adoptions." The purpose of such open adoptions is not to permanently deprive the child of connections to, or knowledge of, the child's natural family. The purpose of adoptions shall be to give the adoptive child a permanent home. To this end, the following shall apply and be contained in all adoptive orders and decrees.

- (A) The adoptive parents and adoptive child shall be treated under the law as if the relationship was that of a natural child and parent, except as forth herein.
- (B) The adoptive child shall have an absolute right, absence a convincing and compelling reason to the contrary, to information and knowledge about his natural family and his tribal heritage.
- (C) The adoptive child and members of the child's natural extended family (including parents) may have the right to reasonable visitation, subject to reasonable controls of the adoptive parents, unless otherwise restricted by the Court for a compelling reason.
- (D) Adoption shall not serve to prevent an adoptive child from inheriting from a natural parent in the same manner as any other natural child. The natural parents shall not be entitled to inherit from an adoptive child in the same manner as parents would otherwise be entitled to inherit. An adoptive child shall be entitled to inherit from adoptive parents and vice versa in the same manner as if natural parents and child.

Section 450 Consent to Adoption (5 PYTC § 7-450)

- (A) Written consent to an adoption is not required if:
 - (1) The parent has abandoned the child.
 - (2) The parent's rights have been terminated.

 - (4) The parent has been declared incompetent.
- (B) Written consent to an adoption is required of:

 - (2) The biological, adoptive or, acknowledged father.
 - (3) The custodian if empowered to consent.
 - (4) The Court if the custodian is not empowered to consent.
 - (5) The child if over 12 years of age.
- (C) Written consent to an adoption shall be executed and acknowledged before the Court. Consent shall not be accepted or acknowledged by the Court prior to ten days after the birth of the child. An interpreter shall be provided if the person consenting to the adoption does not understand English. Consents of a child over the age of 12 years shall be made orally either in Court or in chambers with only the judge, any other person(s) the judge deems necessary, and the child present.
- (D) Any consent given under the provisions of this chapter may be withdrawn by the person or agency which gave the consent at any time prior to the entry of a final decree of adoption. No reason need be stated and no hearing need be held on such withdrawal.
 - (1) All withdrawals must be in writing and notarized or witnessed by the Clerk of the Court, with the original being filed with the Court.
- (E) Within two years after the entry of a decree of adoption, said decree may be vacated upon a petition being filed and a showing that the consent which made the adoption possible was obtained through fraud or duress. Upon such a showing, the Court shall vacate the decree and return the adopted person to that status he had prior to the entry of the decree.
